

CELEBRITY BIO

Karen Owens is a devout member of the International Wizard of Oz Club www.ozclub.org and travels to festivals selling her items and membership promotions for the (IWOC) club. Storyland Collectables has been a supporter and promoter of Wizard of Oz events around the country. Karen has traveled and assisted with the cast of Munchkins from the movie to events around the country including the 70th Anniversary in New York at the Tavern on the Green, 75th Anniversary in Hollywood California and November 20, 2007 for the Star of Fame dedication in Hollywood California. You can find Storyland Collectables on the web, Facebook, LinkedIn or at one of the Wizard of Oz events around the country. This June, she will be bringing her outstanding pin collection for display at Michigan Wizard of Oz Festival. The collection started back in 1989 with her love of the Wendy Gell pins and has expanded to pins from around the country including Destination Imagination, Jaycees, Chittenango Festival, Chesterton Festival, the Kansas Historical Society, Odyssey of the Mind pins, Red Cross Pins, Lions Club and many special event and anniversary pins. Storyland Collectables based in Michigan since 1995, owner Karen Owens started as a catalog business and opened in Gallery Stores in Detroit area malls. You can now find her on line store on the web www.wizardofozland.com. Email contact storylandmi@aol.com
